OVER 4,000 MAJORITY FOR CONVENTION.

Shown By Official Election Returns—The Canvass of the Vote By Election Commissioners Yesterday.

Norfolk's majority for a constitutional convention was shown by the official canvass of the vote yesterday. The official returns from Thursday's election to be much larger than was expected. Only 556 votes were cast against the convention in the city, giving it a majority of 4,177. This is the handiest majority given the convention anywhere in the State. A number of the Republicans voted for the convention. It is thought, while a few Democrats may have voted against it. The commissioners of the election, Messrs. E. J. Gorman, W. A. Thompson, A. T. Montgomery and D. B. Cain, met at the Clerk's office at noon yesterday and canvassed the election returns. The full vote by wards for the salary of the clerk and on the constitutional convention will be found in tabulated form

The vote for the Council ticket in the several wards has been previously published. There was considerable scratching done even when there was no opposition, as the table will show. The vote of the independent candidates was comparatively small. Clerk of Courts Royster will issue certificates of election to those who are shown by the returns to be elected.

Three Great Specials!

BEAUTIFUL
NEW SILKS

FOWNES'
KID GLOVES

FANCY
PIQUES

The rapidly increasing patronage of this firm is attributable to obvious causes—namely: Dependable Merchandise at Reasonable Prices; Honest, Legitimate Business Principles and Modern Methods.

Our motto is to sell rapidly—at a great loss, if necessary, rather than carry goods over. Style and newness must characterize everything that goes out our doors. This is our method, and so we are going to offer you

New Silks at Very Low Prices.

Our entire line of Foulards, Libertys, Figured Silk Crepe de Chenes and Corded Jap. Wash Silks are standing at the following marvelously low prices:

Beautiful 75c. Foulards in the richest seasonable designs, at 59c.
Our rich, fresh $1 Crepe Foulards and Libertys at 69c.

Then our handsome $1.25 and $1.50 qualities in impressive Persian and other quaint, fantastic designs will go at 98c.

$1.25 delicate colored, figured Silk Crepe de Chine in rich Persian effects, at 98c, soft and clingy. 14 yards to a dress pattern.

8 or 10 pieces of 50c. Corded Jab Wash Silks in dainty effects at 39c.

Now we go the second of the "three great specials."

Fowne's Celebrated Kid Gloves.

Some merchants ship their kid gloves away at this season to be protected from "spotting," and at the end of the damp sultry season have them returned. You get old gloves in this way.

We have no affinity with such antiquated deceptive schemes.

Our method in this matter is to put the knife in the prices and sell new kid gloves away under regular prices.

Fowne's fresh and new $2 Kid Gloves in brown, tan, mode, castor and black, with neat imperial stitchings, at $1.49. Regular $2 gloves; 51c. saved.

One special lot of Fowne's $2 Ladies' extra heavy Black Kid Gloves at $1.49. Indispensable to the equestrienne—suitable for the cyclist—delightful for driving and a nobby walking glove. Now the third great special.
